

WESTERN UNION'S TEN OUTSTANDING MARITIME STUDENTS OF THE PHILIPPINES

Out of 44 individual nominations from different Maritime Higher Education Institutions nationwide, Midn 1CL Mark Kelvin Abarado of Bohol (Class 2016), Midn 1cl Juelle Jade Espiritu of City of Manila (Class 2017), and 2cl Andre'Chad Acosta of Makati City (Class 2018) made it to be awardees of Western Union's Ten Outstanding Maritime Students for 2016. All nominees have undergone Panel Interviews, Written Examinations, and an Essay Writing Evaluation on top of their achievement records and documentation. Midn 1cl Juelle Jade Espiritu was also awarded as the best essay and project proposal for the Chains of Better Program of the Western Union Foundation. Since 2011, nominations of MAAP cadets belong to the top 10 awardees annually.

Back Row from the left: Midn 1cl Abarado, Midn 2cl Acosta, and Midn 1cl Espiritu are among the 10 Awardees of the Western Union Ten Outstanding Maritime Students for 2016.

Midwn 1cl Shiela Mae Rosales of Taguig City (Class 2015) (5th from the Left), Midn 1cl Archie Artizona of Tarlac City (Class 2016) (2nd from the right), and Midn 1cl Alvin Acuido of Camarines Sur (Class 2015) (1st from the right) are TOMS Awardees for 2015

Midwn 1cl Shiela May Diaz of Aborlan Palawan (Class 2015) (3rd from the right), and Midn 1cl Lawrence Tabanao of Las Pinas City (Class 2015) (3rd from the left) are TOMS Awardees for 2014

Midn 1cl John Patrick Vea of Las Pinas City (Class 2014) (1st from the Left), Midn 1cl Mark Joseph Norico of Miagao, Iloilo (Class 2014) (5th from the left), Midn 1cl Monteo Ho of Vinzons, Camarines Norte (Class 2014) (5th from the right) and Midn 1cl Jo-Mari Hieras of Pasig City (Class 2014) (4th from the right) are TOMS Awardees for 2013

Midn 1cl Marville Cullen Espago of Dasmarinas City, Cavite (Class 2012) (5th from the Left), is one of the TOMS Awardees for 2011